CPDCS PRIORITIES IN 2020

We are now organizing the World Conference for nuclear disarmament, peace, the climate and justice. 1,500 leading activists from around the world will join us in New York to impact governments, build international and intersectional collaborations and develop strategies.

Early confirmed speakers include Nobel Peace laureates, the mayors of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and Noam Chomsky.

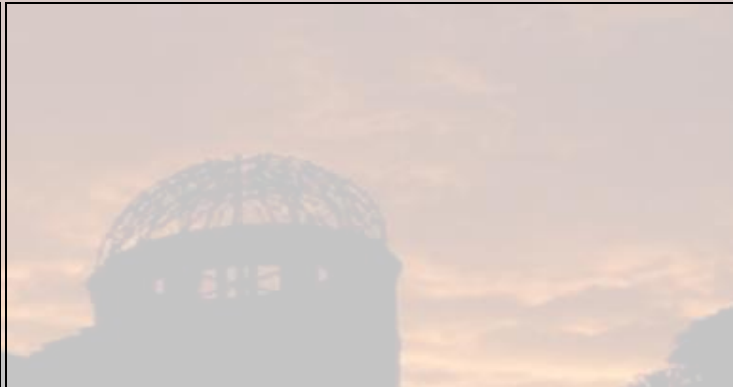

Our second priority is promoting common security diplomacy. The Asia-Europe Eurasian Common Security Conference and our ties with Russian, Asian and European peace, democracy and environmental activists provide a strong base to build on.
